26. Jesus, the grandson of Heli, being born of Joseph's wife, was born hereditary King of the Jews. Heli married the sister of the father of Elizabeth, the wife of Zachariah and mother of John the baptizer, who was, therefore, second-cousin to Jesus. Elizabeth was of the daughters of Aaron; consequently Mary, daughter of Heli and mother of Jesus, was of the house of David by her father, and of the house of Aaron by her mother : so that in her son Jesus was not only vested by his birth and the marriage of his mother, all kingly rights, but all Rego-Puntifical as well. In Jesus, therefore, is united the combined kingly and high priestly offices of the nation of Israel; so that when the government shall be upon his shoulders, he will sit as a priest upon his throne, after the order of Mel-necessor in the united office of King and 27. From all which it is evident that if there lives any one who has a right to David's throne, it can only be Jesus, and therefore he must have been raised from the dead; that if the Jews
